PETPLAYLAND POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Dog Walking

Petplayland requires that you provide your dog's emergency contact information, as well as complete veterinary information and release form. For the protection of your pet(s), as well as other dogs that may be attending Petplayland Services, you must provide proof of vaccinations and have some sort of flea preventative program. A valid Dog License to comply with local bylaws is also required.

Emergency Care Policy

It is recommended that you inform your veterinarian that you are using Petplayland's services and confirm policy for payment in the event of an emergency. All contact information is kept in the Petplayland vehicle for such an emergency. All emergency veterinarian charges will be your sole responsibility. In case of an emergency we will use your preferred vet/hospital. If your preferred vet/hospital is unavailable, we will use our discretion to obtain medical attention for your pet.

Weather Conditions and/or Illness

Petplayland provides services regardless of rain, sleet, hail, snow or illness. In cases of extreme weather or illness every effort will be made to visit your pet(s) in a timely manner. Animals with medical issues will be attended first. In an unlikely event that Petplayland is unable to attend and your animal needs to cancel the visit, you and/or your emergency contact person will be notified immediately in order to arrange care.

For Your Pet's Safety

To ensure the safety and well being of your pets, Petplayland staff have completed seminars to upgrade and educate in Canine Behaviour. These seminars include aggression to other animals, humans, and a three-day instructor's course in "Doggie Play" and Socialization. Petplayland staff are also certified in Pet First Aid.

Client Satisfaction

Occasionally Petplayland will inquire about your satisfaction with services to determine areas of improvement to better serve you. However, please feel free to contact Petplayland at any time if you have any areas of concern.

Returning Home – Pet Sitting Policy

It is important that you call Petplayland when your return from your trip. This is the only way the service provider can be positive that your pet(s) are back in your care and safe. If you do not contact Petplayland upon your return home, service will continue until we know you are present and caring for your pet(s).

Outdoor Pets

Petplayland will not be liable for free-roaming outdoor pets in the event of illness, injury, loss or death. It is strongly advised that all pets wear an ID tag with a contact number and that they remain inside the home or confined for their own safety and welfare during your absence.

Visitors

Petplayland is not responsible for any damages incurred to your home or pet by said visitor. Please notify Petplayland if there will be anyone else having access to your home.

Cancellation Policy

Life is filled with last-minute changes such as illness and bad weather. Petplayland requests, however, that you give as much advance notice as possible when cancelling services. If you wish to alter an agreed upon service Petplayland asks that you kindly give at least two weeks notice in order to change the schedule. Note that a two-day service charge will apply when proper notice is not given.

Payment Policy

Petplayland currently accepts cash and cheques made payable to Petplayland. Returned checks will be charged a service fee accordingly.

Pet Photos & Comments

For purposes of safety and reference, Petplayland will take photos of your pet to keep on file. These photos and your comments will sometimes be used for promotional purposes on Petplayland’s website: www.petplayland.net.

Petplayland Days of Operation

Petplayland services are available 7 days a week.
